CAMP S.O.U.L. 2021 LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION FORM

Camp S.O.U.L. is a 6-day camp for talented high school students (grades 9–12) directed by Mr. Ignoisco Miles held on the Indiana University Bloomington campus. The students study and perform music of the African American and African diaspora during rehearsal sessions facilitated by music professionals, IU faculty, staff, and graduate students. While developing artistically, students will also gain important information about academic requirements and financial aid resources at Indiana University. The goal of this camp is to encourage students to attend Indiana University and obtain the degree of their choice as well as to participate in the African American Arts Institute as they matriculate.
